

BOARD OF ADVISERS

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Oregon FBLA Board of Advisers plays an important role in Oregon FBLA and is a vital link between the State and local chapters. While fiduciary decisions are the responsibility of the Board of Trustees, Members of the Board of Advisers provide valuable insight and direction on key decisions pertaining to programmatic elements of Oregon FBLA that impact chapters, advisers, and students.

About the Oregon FBLA Board of Advisers

The Oregon FBLA Board of Advisers is comprised of the following positions

- One (1) Adviser from each region (Region Representatives)
- Three (3) “At Large” representatives
- The current FBLA State President
- The State Chair from the Oregon Department of Education
- The State Adviser

Added together this provides for a potential of 12 total members of the Board of Advisers.

Advisers serve three-year terms on the Board. A rotation has been established to ensure continuity. Each year, two Region Representatives rotate off the Board as well as one At Large Representative.

Each School may have no more than one Adviser on the Board of Advisers and each Region may have no more than two Advisers on the Board of Advisers. This means that any given region can only hold one of the three At Large positions in addition to their Region Representative position.

The Board of Advisers meets three times a year and members of the Board are expected to attend all three meetings.

What does the Board of Advisers Do?

The Board of Advisers acts in an advisory capacity to the Board of Trustees. The Board of Advisers is looked to for recommendations in the following arenas:

- Competitive Events and Competitive Events Issues
- Conference Dates, Days, and Locations
- Policies as they relate to the State Officer Program, Conferences, Dress Code, and Program Implementation
- Region Representatives should keep advisers in their region up to date on decisions, needs, changes, and involve their region in their contributions to Board of Advisers Decisions

What does the Board of Advisers Not Do?

- Make decisions related to finance, fees, dues, insurance, and legal aspects. The Board of Trustees manages the fiduciary operations of the Association.
- Manage the Region Skills Conference – each region has autonomy on how these are operated. By virtue of being on the BOA, members are not necessarily responsible.

What's In It For Me?

- Board of Advisers Members are the first to know about new things, new opportunities, and new directions for the Association. During each meeting the Board is provided updates on new program initiatives, competitive event changes, and issues that pertain to chapters and the State.
- Members have the opportunity to participate in decisions and discussions that impact the future directions of Oregon FBLA.
- Oregon FBLA provides for travel expenses to Board of Advisers Meetings including Substitute Reimbursement, travel costs, meals, and lodging when necessary.
- The advice and input from members of the Board of Advisers is invaluable in the ongoing growth, development, and long term success of Oregon FBLA.
